

BME Grad Student Wins Best Student Paper Award at 2018 AAAM Conference

BME Ph.D. student, John Humm was awarded the John D. States Best Student Paper Presented at the 2018 Association for the Advancement of Automotive Medicine Conference in Nashville, TN for his paper entitled "Three-dimensional kinematic corridors of the head, spine, and pelvis for small female driver-seat occupants in near- and far-side oblique frontal impacts." Congratulations, John!