

BME Grad Student Wins Best Presentation/Poster at MCW Research Day

Biomedical Engineering doctoral student Cagatay Dursun won Best Student Presentation at MCW's Research Day on September 19th, 2019. Cagatay's presentation was entitled, "PhenoGeneRanker: A Tool for Gene Prioritization Using Complete Multiplex Heterogeneous Networks". The work was co-authored by Naoki Shimoyama; Mary Shimoyama; Michael Schlappi; and Serdar Bozdog. Cagatay's faculty research advisor is Dr. Mary Shimoyama, Associate Professor of Biomedical Engineering.

Congratulations, Cagatay!