

Dr. Frank Pintar Receives FAA Grant Award

Dr. Frank Pintar, Professor of Biomedical Engineering, has received a three-year, $795,234 grant award from the Federal Aviation Administration entitled, "Occupant Safety in Obliquely Mounted Aircraft Seat Systems." Prompted by new aircraft seating configurations that include oblique angles, the project will study oblique spine flexion to directly improve FAA safety standards.